BRIEF

During November Knowsley CLCs and the Vocational Skills Centre were the venues for the Transforming Secondary Education Beacon Day. Participating in a variety of workshops, delegates were given the opportunity to focus on transforming teaching and learning, improving secondary transfer, the promotion of a vocational curriculum, effective preparation for exams and the development of a comprehensive inclusion strategy.

DESCRIPTION

Leader of the Council, Ronnie Round began the day in the studio at Huyton CLC by broadcasting the launch of Buzzin.net (a comprehensive site of learning resources to support the curriculum), to the delegates upstairs in the Resource Area and across the three Centres throughout the day.

A variety of activities including accelerated/mind based learning concepts, Years 5 - 8 transition in MFL, Plus One Challenge, SAM Learning, control technology, Dance GCSE promoting the mobile classroom using PC tablets.

OUTCOMES/EVALUATION

The CLCs have now been host to several beacon events throughout the year. Further details please look at our newsletters on the sites website www.knowsleyclcs.org.uk
